

I have been waiting and waiting for someone to come up with a way for me to customize the cable channels I want. I would prefer to pay for just those channels I want to watch. I would also prefer it if I had a choice of which cable company I could use, instead of the monopoly that exists today. There is only one cable company--that is not fair market competition!!